

Confidentiality Policy

- Confidentiality is central to the trust between the User Panel members and National Voices.
- National Voices will not pass on User Panel members' personal information to any third party, including other User Panel members or National Voices' staff or National Voices' member organisations, without their express permission.
- National Voices' handling of confidential personal information will:
 - Promote, support and protect the privacy, dignity and rights of our User Panel members
 - Comply with best practice
 - Conform to the law

Date: 15 July 2011