Webs of Care

What does care look like from the individual’s perspective?

We asked patients, carers and charities to draw their interactions with services and support, as seen from their perspective. The result? Webs of care.

Published 2011
National MND Strategy – what a person with MND needs

- Equipment & Adaptations
- Continuing Healthcare
- End of Life/Palliative Care
- Carers/Respite Care
- Key Workers & Multi-Disciplinary Teams
- Respiratory Management
- Counselling
- Disability Benefits
- Clinical Research
- Faster Diagnosis
Natalie

- Rheumatologist
- Rheumatology nurse
- Physiotherapists
- Orthopaedic consultant
- Maxillofacial consultant
- GP
- Occupational therapist
- Surgeons for hips, shoulder and jaw
- X-ray, imaging (MRI)
- Haematology
- University OT
- Services for benefits from the DWP
- Lecturers (who made adjustments such as having lectures on the ground floor)
- Care support services
- Disabled students administrative (for accessible learning equipment etc),

- Services for benefits from the DWP
Out-of-Hours Doctors
GP
District Nurses
Consultant
Continence Adviser
Speech & Language Adviser
Dietician
Community Dentist
Occupational Therapist
Equipment Service
Physiotherapist
Wheelchair Service
Alternating Mattress technician
Oxygen service
Dementia Advisory Nurse?
Malcolm & Barbara
Care team
2 live-in carers (alternating weekly)
Replacement carer
[Some night nursing – Health]
Emergency carers & Barbara
Social Worker
Direct Payments Team; Rowan Org.
Alzheimer’s Soc outreach worker
The Web of Care
(Last 7 yrs)